ENERGY NEWS
YOU CAN USE

The weather is changing...
TIPS TO SAVE ENERGY THIS WINTER.

You don't have to sacrifice comfort to save! Little actions like these can make a difference.

TIP ONE: Turn your thermostat down when no one is home and when sleeping.

TIP TWO: Install an ENERGY STAR® certified smart thermostat. Program it to automatically adjust throughout the day.

TIP THREE: Leave your curtains open to let the warmth of direct sunlight in. Close them at night to help keep the heat inside.

TIP FOUR: Make sure areas around vents and other heating sources are clear. Furniture, carpet, and other objects can block the flow of heat, making your heater work less efficiently.

Enroll in Hourly Pricing to save this winter and all year long.

Save money while contributing to a cleaner tomorrow! Hourly Pricing is a supply rate that lets you pay for electricity at the hourly market price. By shifting some of your energy use to lower-priced hours, you could save money on your energy bills.

- Adjust when you do tasks throughout the day, like doing laundry and running the dishwasher at night or on weekends.
- Sign up for alerts so you'll know when prices are higher and you should shift energy use.

WINTER WEATHER IS RIGHT AROUND THE CORNER.

We're preparing and you can, too.

ComEd is committed to providing reliable, uninterrupted service to all customers. And while we do our best to prevent them, power outages can happen. With our service territory facing more powerful storms, we remain focused on grid investments and innovations. Make sure you're prepared for severe weather and possible outages, too.

Sign up for Outage Alerts today.

- Text 'ADD OUTAGE' to 26633 and you will instantly receive a text message confirming your enrollment
- Once enrolled, you will automatically receive a text message notifying you when an outage is known
 - Typically, a notice is sent within 30 minutes of a confirmed outage
- Use ComEd's new outage tracker
 - Track estimated restoration time of an outage within the mobile app or online

Managing Rising Energy Costs

"We recognize that bill increases are especially painful for households that are already struggling financially. ComEd has a wide range of bill assistance options available to qualified customers, in addition to energy management resources for bill-reduction that are available to all customers. Be assured that we will continue to look for every opportunity to bring down the costs of electricity across this region."

~ GIL QUINIONES, PRESIDENT AND CEO

We're committed to helping customers gain control over their energy use and costs. Our range of payment assistance and energy-savings solutions can offer support with your monthly bills.

There are a variety of payment & assistance solutions that provide relief to eligible customers. From Payment Arrangements that help settle past-due balances to the federal grant program LIHEAP, you have options. Qualifying customers can also have deposits and late payment charges waived for one year.

Want help managing your energy use? The ComEd Energy Efficiency Program offers a free energy assessment, energy-saving products and more. Sign up for High Usage Alerts to be notified when your energy use is trending higher than normal. And enroll in Peak Time Savings and Hourly Pricing so you can save by shifting when you use energy.

To help manage your monthly bills consider Budget Billing, which provides a predictable monthly bill amount to help you better budget, or a Due Date Extension so you have a little more time to pay your bill.
