ENERGY NEWS
YOU CAN USE

For Your Small and Medium Business!

TOOLS TO HELP YOU MANAGE YOUR ENERGY, TOO.

From assessments and alert tools to usage tracking and more, all the tools and programs available to manage energy for your residential account are also available for your small or medium business. Be sure to sign up for My Account to have access to all the options designed for businesses like yours. Take advantage of the support we offer to help lower your monthly bills!

No-Cost Facility Assessments

This makes taking control of your energy use easy. An approved ComEd energy engineer or Energy Efficiency Service Provider will help identify energy efficiency opportunities that are right for your business. You'll receive a personalized report detailing estimated energy and cost savings, project costs, and simple payback period. You'll learn about discounts and financial incentives available and receive recommendations that will fit your business's specific needs and budget.

Free Online Business Energy Analyzer (BEA)

Enroll in BEA to receive customized reports and insights into how and when your business uses energy down to 30-minute intervals. Receive simple, high-impact recommendations with estimated energy and cost savings. Reports are easy to view and share so your team can participate and monitor your progress as you implement energy-saving changes.

Incentives on Energy Efficient Upgrades

Operate better, use less energy and reduce overhead costs by implementing energy efficiency improvements through the ComEd Energy Efficiency Program. Upgrades to lighting controls, thermostats, HVAC and more can help you use less energy and lower your monthly bills. Be sure to take advantage of the financial incentives available to help offset the cost of your projects!

YOU CAN TAKE CONTROL OF YOUR ENERGY SAVINGS.

ComEd's Hourly Pricing is an electric supply rate that lets you pay for electricity at the hourly market price. By shifting some of your energy use to lower-priced hours, you could save on your monthly bills.

HERE'S HOW IT WORKS:

- Energy prices are lower during times of lower demand, on nights and weekends.
- Save by shifting your energy use – like using your dishwasher or doing laundry – to lower-priced hours.
- We'll help you monitor prices and occasionally send you alerts so you know the best times to use less energy. Choose phone, text, or email notifications.
- Hourly Pricing offers seasonal saving tips, monthly reports, and more!

TAKE CONTROL OF YOUR ENERGY USE AND SAVE.

Take control of the things you can! When you sign into your online account, you'll find tools that provide helpful information about your energy use — and that means more control over your monthly bills. Access options like these through My Account:

- High-Usage Alerts are a great place to start. Sign up and you'll be notified when your energy use is trending higher than normal, so you can make changes to reduce usage and ultimately help you save. Choose text, call, or email notifications.
- Be sure to sign up for Weekly Usage Reports. You'll see a customized breakdown of your energy use trends, so you can compare your daily, weekly, and yearly use to really help you understand your consumption. You'll also find personalized energy-saving tips to help you save.
- Need ideas on how you can use less energy? The ComEd Energy Efficiency Program offers a free energy assessment with energy-saving products. Get seasonal energy-saving tips and take advantage of rebates and discounts on energy-efficient products. Enroll in Peak Time Savings and Hourly Pricing so you can save by shifting when you use energy.

And don't forget to download the ComEd Mobile App! You can pay your bill, track your energy usage, report and track outages, and more. All at your fingertips, 24/7.
